

AI-Enhanced Resume 2 — IT / Cybersecurity

BRYSON SNELLING

Reno, NV | 530-518-7612 | bsnelling@unr.edu

Education

B.S. in General Business Administration

University of Nevada, Reno — Expected Spring 2027

Relevant Coursework: Information Systems, Data Analytics, Business Applications of Technology

Professional Summary

Detail-oriented and highly disciplined student-athlete developing strong technical, problem-solving, and communication skills. Experienced in fast-paced, high-structure environments requiring quick decision-making and efficient execution. Seeking entry-level opportunities in IT support, cybersecurity, or tech operations where dependability and analytical thinking are valued.

Technical Competencies

- Troubleshooting & Problem Diagnosis
 - Basic Networking & System Setup
 - Microsoft Office & Google Workspace
 - CRM / Database Familiarity
 - Digital Communication & Documentation
 - Learning New Technologies Quickly
-

Experience

University of Nevada Athletics — Student-Athlete (Football, Cornerback)

- Developed strong analytical skills through reviewing play data, film analysis, and performance metrics.
- Collaborated with coaches and teammates to implement strategy—similar to procedural workflows in tech environments.
- Maintained strict schedules, demonstrating reliability and efficient task management.
- Served in SAAC, contributing to digital communication, event planning, and technology-assisted coordination.

Boys & Girls Club of Reno — Volunteer

- Assisted with event operations involving setup, organization, and logistics—requiring planning and attention to detail.
 - Supported youth programs using communication, patience, and clear instruction—important for user support roles.
 - Collaborated with staff to troubleshoot event needs and quickly resolve issues during large gatherings.
-

Strengths

- Strong Work Ethic & Discipline
- Quick Learner in Tech Environments
- Excellent Communication
- Team-Oriented Problem Solving
- Leadership & Reliability
- High Adaptability Under Pressure